

Attachment C - Management & Technical Information

See Attached

West End Communications, Inc.

Martin Kalchstein, currently Vice President of West End Communications, Inc., was formerly Vice President of Sprawlnet.Com from 1999-2000. His expertise is within prepaid phone card sales, specifically in customer and carrier relations, the design of niche market platforms, and printing. During his tenures, he has created and managed powerful nationwide distribution networks with his vast industry knowledge and experience. Mr. Kalchstein graduated from Queens College with his Bachelor of Arts in 1969.

Robert McCallum, currently Vice President of Operations for West End Communications, Inc., was the Managing Director of WestEnd, LLC, from 1997-2000. He was formerly National Sales Manager of Caribbean Telephone & Telegraph from 1994-96, as well Sales Manager for U.S. 800 Services from 1996-97. His proficiency is with prepaid phone card sales and operations, specifically in client and vendor relations, the development of profitable products. Throughout his career, he has created and managed dominant local, nationwide, and international distribution networks. Mr. McCallum served in the U.S. Air Force as Sergeant in the Civil Engineering Division from 1982-88.